

Dr. Binayak Sen will be inaugurating the 2010 VIBGYOR Film Festival at 5.30pm on Wednesday, February 17th. He would also participate in the South Asia Conference the same day from 10am-4pm on 'State, Communal and Developmental Conflicts in South Asia'.

Dates: February 17 -21, 2010 Venue: Delegate Screening – Sangeet Nataka Academy Campus, Thrissur.

PC Chacko, MP will be presiding over the function. Prominent guests includes International film directors: Roohi Hameed (Tanzania), Andre Oliviera (Brazil) and Kerala State Film Academy Chairman, Mr. K.R. Mohanaan. Social activists from south asian region are also expected to join various sessions. For more information, <http://vibgyorfilm.org/>

The Coalition for Nuclear Disarmament and Peace (CNDP), as special invitees, will hold its National Coordination Committee (open door) meeting from 20-21 Feb., as a part of the larger gamut of the event. The main focus of this meeting will be the forthcoming Tenth Celebrations of the CNDP from 9-12 December in Delhi. Those who are interested in national/regional/global nuclear disarmament and peace, and also the pernicious effects of nuclear power, may like to join the process. May confirm by sending an email to cndpindia@gmail.com.

For more information, <http://cndpindia.org>